

GOLDSCHMIDT

Smart Rail Solutions

THERMIT® WELDER COURSES

GAIN PRACTICAL HANDS-ON EXPERIENCE IN ALUMINOTHERMIC WELDING PROCESSES

Thermit Australia's comprehensive welder training and affiliated RTO training programs, ensure welding staff are trained and accredited to carryout aluminothermic welding processes in accordance with the Australian Qualifications Framework.

TECHNICAL DATA

BENEFITS

- Courses can be carried out at our Somersby Training Centre (Central Coast, NSW) or on customer work site
- Comprehensive technical advice and after sales service
- On site supervision and welding operations
- Affordable and comprehensive method of staff training
- Ensure welding staff are trained and accredited in all THERMIT processes
- Highest level of competency achieved
- On-going mentoring and monitoring of progress
- Commitment to ensure accredited welders are updated with new developments and latest processes
- On-site product demonstrations

SCOPE OF DELIVERY

- TLIW3015 – Welding Rail using Aluminothermic Welding Processes
- TLIW2012 – Grinding Rails
- TLIW3035 – Heat and Cut Materials using OXY – LPG equipment for the rail industry
- SmartWeld Control technology training and service
- Field assembled GIJs training, installation and service
- Electronic Track Measuring Devices training and service (Railstraight Wave)
- Welder Recertification » Process Conversion Training
- Process Upgrading

MORE INFORMATION

For more information contact our technical services team technicalservices.gau@goldschmidt.com

